

Green Adventure Project Core Values & Profile of a Graduate

Core Values:

- Kindness: to ourselves, others, and the earth
- Honesty: to value the truth and learn from our mistakes
- Stewardship: to take care of our school and planet

Profile of a Graduate:

- As a result of attending GAP School, Learners will:
 - Become more confident with who they are as a person, intellectually, physically, and emotionally.
 - Have practical experiences practicing 21st Century Skills such as communication, cooperation, creative innovation, and problem solving.
 - Be confident asking questions and finding answers to their questions.
 - Increase their comfort of being outdoors in all weather, knowing how to dress appropriately and take care of their personal needs.
 - Develop a love of learning in relation to their interests and passions.
 - Understand how to utilize the design process, celebrating and learning from mistakes.
 - Have practice navigating social cues and norms, experience playing different roles in a group or on a team and developing the skills to be a friend.
 - Develop a connection to the land, to create a deep understanding of the cycles and flows of their place.